Bed & Breakfast Etiquette

Staying at a Bed & Breakfast may be a new and wonderful experience. Here are a few points to consider helping make your stay as pleasant as possible.

- If you have special dietary requirements, inform your host when you book.
- Ask about cancellation and refund policies when you book.
- Let your hosts know when you plan to arrive and call if the time changes.
- If you haven't made a reservation, phone first before dropping by.
- Before you first come into the B&B, knock or ring the bell. It is a private residence.
- Confirm check-in and out times or any special arrangements that may need to be made for your arrival or departure.
- Respect the hosts' private areas of the B&B.
- When sharing a bathroom, be mindful that others are waiting.
- Keep showers short to conserve hot water.
- Keep personal articles and towels in your room if there is a shared bathroom.
- Inquire ahead of time if special services such as baby sitting, laundry or fridge space will be available or if your host can help.
- Show up for breakfast at the agreed upon time.
- Introduce yourself to the other guests if the host is busy.
- If you're staying more than one night, be aware that hosts don't always make beds; they don't want to intrude on your privacy.
- Relax and enjoy what each B&B has to offer. You are a welcomed guest in someone's home. Your hosts are in this business because they enjoy meeting interesting, friendly people like you.
